

USCG Control Verification for Foreign Vessels re: Nieuw Amsterdam 5/21/00

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
UNITED STATES COAST GUARD

OFFICERS & CREW: 566
PASSENGERS: 1374
TOTAL PERSONS: 1940

16711
21 May, 2000

CONTROL VERIFICATION for FOREIGN VESSEL

NIEUW AMSTERDAM

(vessel)

13, 14, 15, 16

(tenders)

SERVICE: Passenger      DISTINCTIVE NUMBER OR LETTERS: L8024014      GROSS TONS: 33930

OWNERS: Hal Antillen N.V.      AGENT: Cruise Line Agencies of Alaska

REGISTRY: The Netherlands      :THIS COUNTRY IS A PARTY TO THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION FOR THE SAFETY OF LIFE AT SEA, 1974. DATE KEEL LAID: 1981

---

FOR PASSENGER OR CARGO VESSELS OF COUNTRIES WHICH ARE PARTIES TO THE 1974 SOLAS CONVENTION:

This letter verifies that the above named vessel has been boarded as authorized by Chapter I, Regulation 19 of the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea, 1974. The vessel has a Passenger Ship Safety Certificate, which was issued by The Netherlands Shipping Inspectorate and expires on 01 September 2000.

This vessel has been examined and found in substantial compliance with the Regulation II-2/41-1 of the SOLAS 74 Convention.

This verification is valid until 20 May, 2001, as long as a valid Passenger Ship Safety Certificate remains on board.

R. C. LORIGAN
Commander, U.S. Coast Guard
Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection
Southeast Alaska