PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT: This form and the system of records is covered by the Privacy Act of 1974. Purpose: The principal purpose is to obtain information to communicate with certificate holders, respondents, and petitioners (who appeal an FAA order, assessment, or denial) during the processing of any appeal. This system of records fulfills Congress's directive of deciding these appeals; the NTSB manages and tracks documents in this system of records. Authority: 49 USC 1133; 49 CFR Part 821. Routine Uses: In addition to disclosures permitted under subsection (b) of the Privacy Act, the NTSB may disclose information in response to discovery ordered by a court, in accordance with 49 USC 1153; and through publicly available records, which the Privacy Act does not preclude from disclosure (e.g., final decisions); some records are available at ntsb.gov. Disclosure: Providing information is voluntary, failure to do so may hamper the processing of cases, and may also result in a case being dismissed.
