

EAA AirVenture Oshkosh

Rod Hightower

President, CEO

Experimental Aircraft Association

The Spirit of Aviation™

EAA AirVenture Oshkosh

The World's Premier Aviation Event

- Unique among aviation experiences globally
- 171,000 members worldwide
- AirVenture 2012 – 60th annual EAA fly-in

AirVenture 2011

Attendance – 541,000

Exhibitors - 800

Total Aircraft – 10,000

Worlds Largest GA Marketplace

Total Show Planes – 2,522

$110M Economic Impact

Enhance Safety

Safety Drivers

Past AirVentures
Airshow Safety Process

Inspire the Future

A large, diverse crowd of people is gathered at an aviation event. In the background, a biplane is visible, featuring a prominent red triangular nose cone with a yellow number '2' and a white triangle containing a black letter 'C'. The scene is outdoors with trees and a white tent visible in the distance.

Realizing the Vision through Safety

Professionalism at every level

Implement Safety Strategies

Internal and External

EAA AirVenture Oshkosh

Rod Hightower

President, CEO

Experimental Aircraft Association

The Spirit of Aviation™