

Al Dickinson

Investigator-In-Charge

National Transportation Safety Board
Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

July 17, 1996

Departed JFK at 8:19 p.m.

Routine Air Traffic Control Communication

Go-team Launch

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

Group Chairmen

- Investigator-In-Charge (IIC) – Al Dickinson
- Deputy IIC – Bob Benzon
- Systems – Bob Swaim
- Electromagnetic Interference – Scott Warren
- Structures – Deepak Joshi assisted by Alex Lemishko
- Maintenance Records – Debra Eckrote
- Airplane Interior Documentation – Hank Hughes
- Witness Groups – David Mayer, Dana Sanzo, Norm Wiemeyer, Doug Brazy, and Heather Knapp
- Data Management – Deborah Bruce and David Mayer

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

- Aircraft Performance/Radar – Charley Pereira and John Schade
- Flight Data Recorder – Dennis Grossi
- Cockpit Voice Recorder – Jim Cash
- Metallurgy and Structures/Sequencing – Jim Wildey assisted by Frank Zakar
- Reconstruction – Larry Jackson
- Meteorology – Greg Salottolo
- Hazardous Materials/Security – Tom Lasseigne
- Medical Forensic – Burt Simon
- Fire and Explosion – Joseph Kolly and Merritt Birky
- Powerplants – Jim Hookey

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

- Air Traffic Control – Al Lebo
- Operations – Norm Wiemeyer
- Aircraft Simulation – Dennis Crider
- Airport Security – Larry Roman
- Trawling – Charley Pereira and Doug Brazy
- Flight Test – Robert Benzou and Dan Bower
- Visibility – David Mayer assisted by Dana Sanzo
- Report Writers – Jodi Moffett and Karen Bury
- Editor – Kristen Sears

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

Wreckage Recovery

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

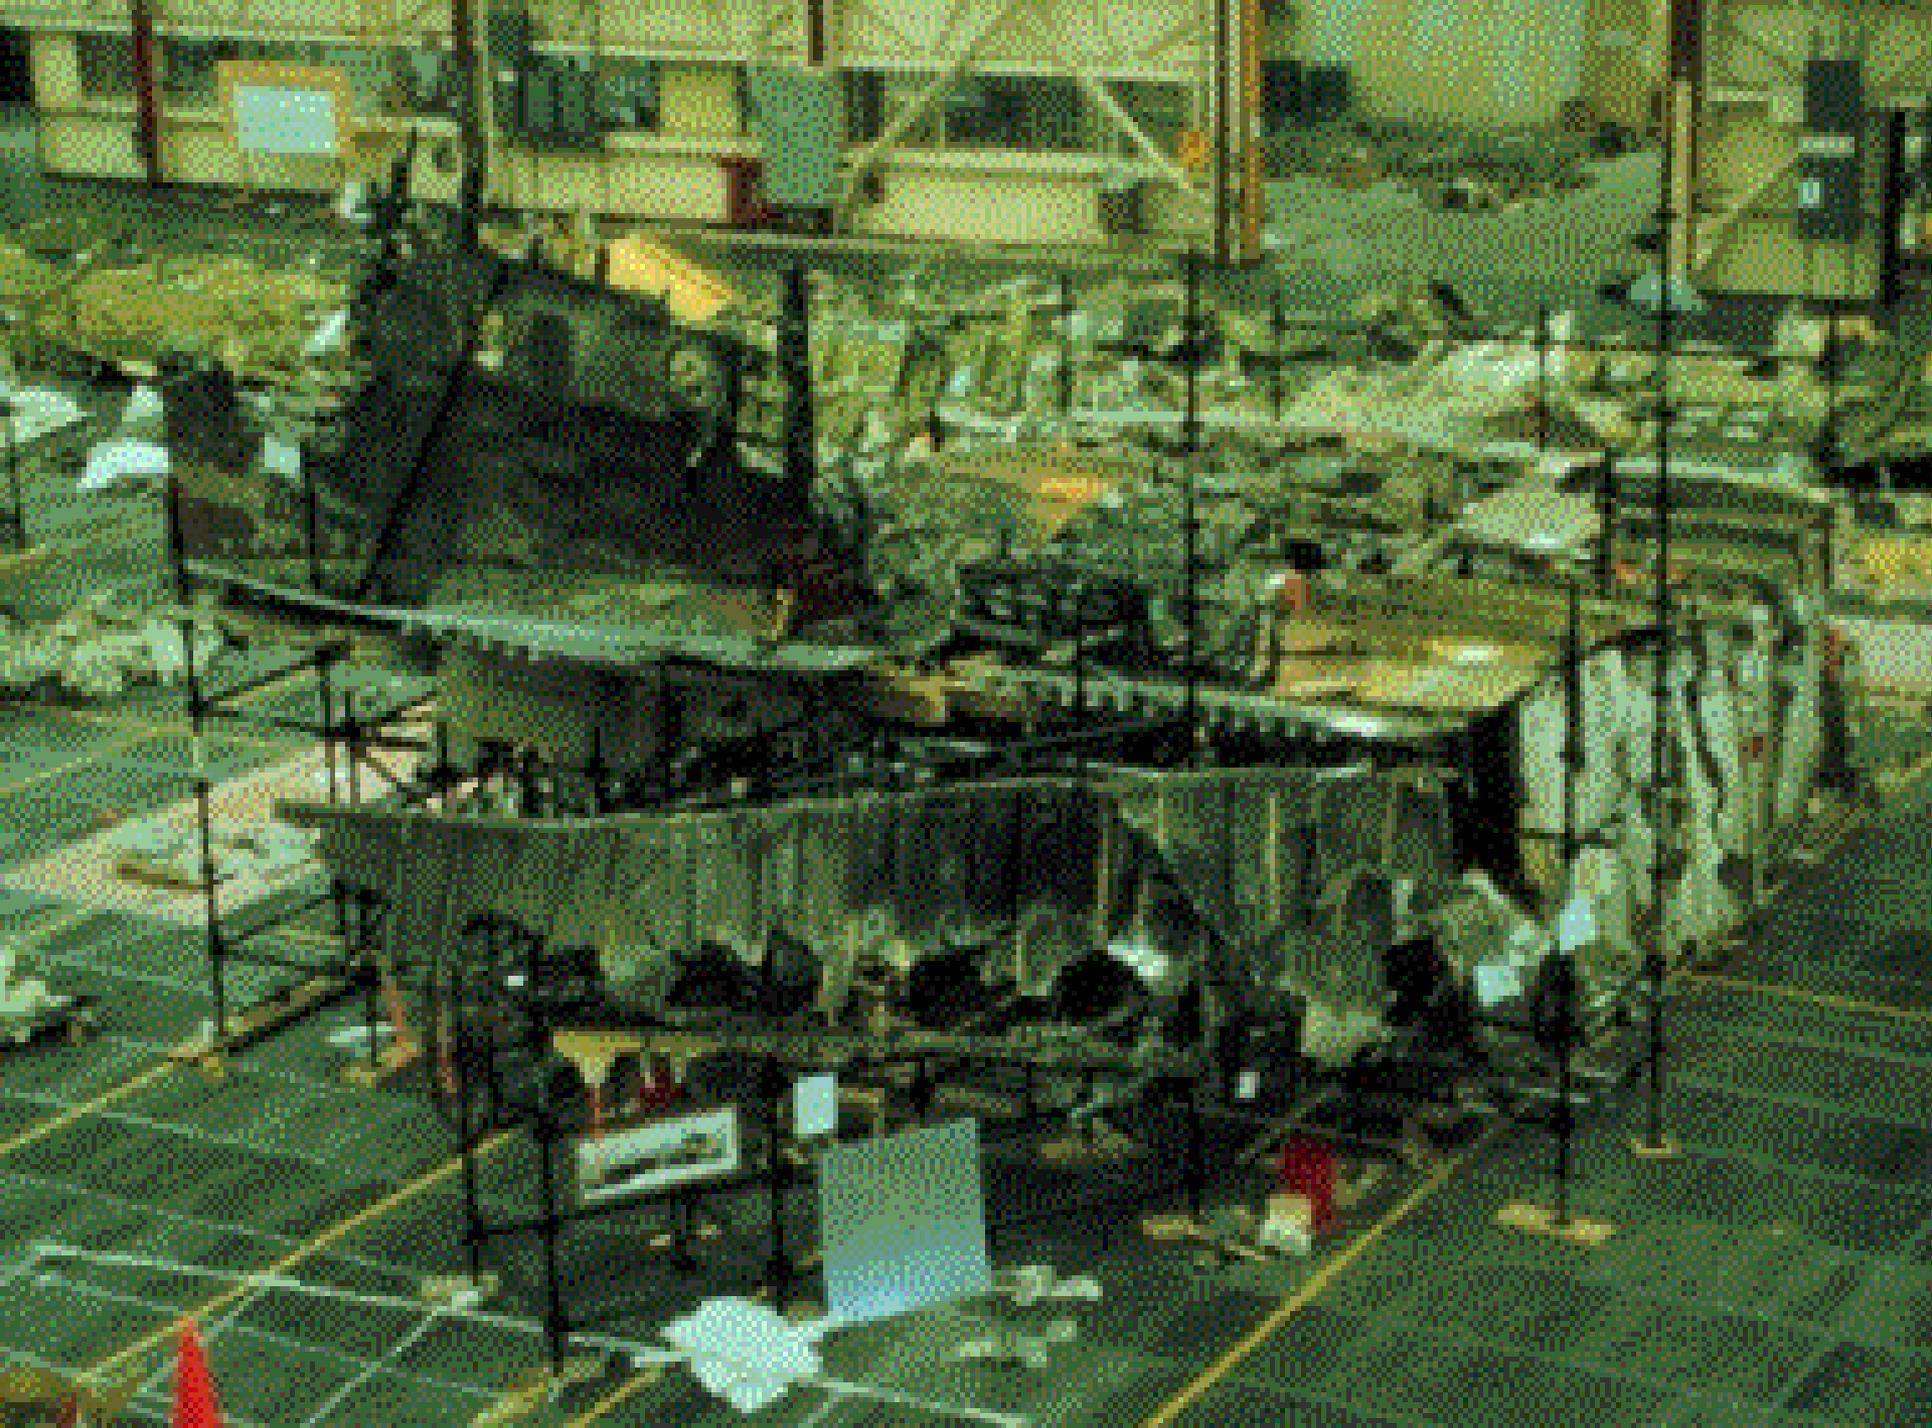

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

'87 5 20

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

Parties to the Investigation

- Federal Aviation Administration
- Boeing Commercial Airplane Group
- Trans World Airlines
- International Association of Machinists, Aerospace Workers, and Flight Attendants
- National Air Traffic Controllers Association
- Air Line Pilots Association
- Pratt and Whitney
- Honeywell, Inc.
- Crane Company, Hydro-Aire, Inc.

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

Submissions from the Parties

- Boeing Commercial Airplane Group
- Trans World Airlines
- International Association of Machinists, Aerospace Workers, and Flight Attendants
- Air Line Pilots Association
- Crane Company, Hydro-Aire, Inc.

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

Outside Resources

- National Aeronautics and Space Administration
- Sandia National Laboratories
- University of Nevada
- Applied Research Associates
- Brookhaven National Laboratories
- California Institute of Technology
- Wright Laboratory
- Naval Research Laboratory
- Naval Air Warfare Center, China Lake
- British Defense Evaluation and Research Agency
- Christian Michelsen Research
- Combustion Dynamics, Ltd.

National Transportation Safety Board

Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800

International Civil Aviation Organization Participants

- United Kingdom
- France
- Singapore
- Australia
- Canada
- New Zealand

National Transportation Safety Board
Investigation Into Trans World Airlines Flight 800